Sentry

'Bubble Armor'

Is a guard, watchman or patrol.

It's a soldier controlling access to a place or keeping guard.

The idea behind setting up our 'Bubble Armor' is to create an energetic object to withstand the energy that comes at you throughout the day.

Especially when it is someone that is very intense like sad or angry. Intense could also mean energy that is pushy or anxious, ill or stressed.

An example of an object that works well as a sentry

A rose because it has a soft loving feel but it will bite you with its thorns if you grab it the wrong way.

1

1. Bring a rose into your bubble, by visualizing in your mind. (or whatever you use to represent what the rose does)

2

2. Have it sit in your bubble as a Sentry.

3

3. Have it represent SEPARATION and/or PROTECTION

a. Separation is any energy that is not your energy.

b. The rose acts as a magnet to stop the energy from penetrating you.

c. This gives you access to seeing or feeling it separate from you.

d. You can now decide to release it or learn from it, as well as teach or heal.
